Important Information Regarding Recycling

It is very important that everyone recycle as much as possible. Please separate trash as follows:

Newspapers — separate from trash
Corrugated cardboard — separate from trash
Office, bond, xerox, typing paper — separate from trash and place in designated yellow barrels
Containers (glass, aluminum, tin) - place in designated yellow barrels

Please use the appropriate containers on the floors of each dorm and office building for the disposal of bottles, cans, and office paper. Newspapers and cardboard should be placed next to the barrels.

Mercer County is inspecting trash at the transfer station and will fine violators (yes, even the Seminary) if proper recycling procedures are not followed.

Thanks for your understanding and your cooperation.

Patriarch of Ethiopian Orthodox Church to visit Princeton Seminary

- 11 Monday

His Holiness Abuna Paulos, patriarch of the Ethiopian Orthodox Church, will visit Princeton Seminary to speak at a student forum on Monday, October 11 at 12:40 p.m. in the Main Lounge.

The patriarch, known to many in the Seminary community as Bishop Paulos, was a student at Princeton for many years, receiving his Ph.D. in 1988. He returned to Ethiopia in 1992 and was consecrated patriarch on July 12 of that year in Trinity Cathedral in Addis Ababa. As patriarch, he is the spiritual leader of the world's 37 million Ethiopian Orthodox Christians.

He is returning to Princeton during a two-week trip to the United States that will also take him to the United Nations and to meet with government officials in Washington, DC. All members of the Seminary community are invited to come hear this man who considered Princeton his "home and monastery" during a ten-year exile from his homeland.

Alumni/ae-in-Residence Program

• 18 Tuesday through 22 Friday

The Reverend Dr. William (Bill) McGregor will be this year's first alumnus-in-residence. A 1954 graduate of Princeton Seminary, he served for 35 years as a local church pastor in Maryland, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. For 19 years he was pastor of Panther Valley Ecumenical Ministries, where four denominations (United Methodist, Episcopal, United Church of Christ and Presbyterian Church USA) called him to start one new congregation on behalf of all four denominations. Since 1985 he has served the United Church of Christ as an associate conference minister. He brings the skill and wisdom of a local church pastor and a pastor to pastors. He is an excellent mentor to seminarians eager to know the issues and ingredients of pastoral ministry. All students are encouraged to seek him out while he is on campus.

The Testament is gearing up for another year

- Is the next Anne Tyler lurking in our midst? Is the heir to Frederick Buechner's mantle among us? Or, do you dabble in the arts, and want to share your work with the community?

This student magazine would like both your creative submissions and your editorial assistance if you have gifts in either area. There are editorial positions open, and we always welcome creative work. Testament publishes articles, interviews, short stories, original artwork, plays...whatever high quality, riveting material you send us. Material may be sent via campus mail to SBN 70. If you have any questions or can assist this publication in any way, please—

Alumni/ae-In-Residence Program

- 18 Monday through 22 Friday

The Reverend Dr. William (Bill) McGregor will be this year's first alumnus-in-residence. A 1954 graduate of Princeton Seminary, he served for 35 years as a local church pastor in Maryland, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania. For 19 years he was pastor of Panther Valley Ecumenical Ministries, where four denominations (United Methodist, Episcopal, United Church of Christ, and Presbyterian Church USA) called him to start one new congregation on behalf of all four denominations. Since 1985 he has served the United Church of Christ as an associate conference minister. He brings the skill and wisdom of a local church pastor and a pastor to pastors. He is an excellent mentor to seminarians eager to know the issues and ingredients of pastoral ministry. All students are encouraged to seek him out while he is on campus.

Senior and Middler Prizes

- Two Robert L. Maitland Prizes of $750 each are awarded annually, one for the best exegesis of a passage of the New Testament and one for the best essay on an assigned subject in English Bible. The assigned exegesis passage for 1993-94 is "Speaking in the Spirit": I Cor 12:1-3. The English Bible topic is "Death is Swallowed Up."

The John Finley McLaren Prize in Biblical Theology ($300) is awarded annually for the best essay on an assigned subject in biblical theology. The subject for 1993-94 is "Is There a `Biblical Ethics'?"

Seniors or middlers may submit entries, which must be signed with an assumed name, accompanied by a sealed envelope containing the name of the author, and presented at the Office of the Dean of Academic Affairs on or before April 22, 1994.

Seminary Saturday

- Friends and supporters of the Seminary, including adult and youth groups from area churches, as well as guests from field education churches, will be on campus from approximately 8:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. tomorrow, October 16. The day will provide an opportunity for our friends and supporters to be introduced to Seminary life and to get to know us better.

  While plans have been made to minimize the interruption of breakfast and lunch lines for the Seminary community, you may want to plan your breakfast and lunch schedule accordingly, since guests will begin registering at 8:30 a.m.

  We ask that you please make our guests feel welcome.

  As a reminder: So that sufficient parking will be available for our guests, students are requested not to park around the quad or in the staff parking lot after 8:00 a.m. on the 16th. Thank you.

Thanks Are In Order

- For those who are new to the campus this year, the Office of Seminary Relations hosts an annual autumn event, "Seminary Saturday." Its purpose is to introduce friends and donors, as well as adult and youth groups from area churches, to the Seminary. It promotes good will and possibly sparks the interest of ministerial vocations in some of our youth.

  This year's event was a great success. Approximately 200 junior- and senior-high students and 300 adults enjoyed a day touring the campus and the media center, listening to talks by President Gillespie and Professor J. Wentzel van Huyssteen or (for the youths) by Jerry Traylor, Laverne McClellan, and Jim Wenker, and watching skits by the mighty "Theologiggle Players" — an inspiring troupe!

  This event could not have happened without the help and hard work of many talented people. The efforts of students, administrators, and staff, including custodial workers, security officers, and ARA Service employees, contributed to the success of this function. Our guests especially enjoyed meeting students — you put a personal face on the institution and the process of theological education. We are indebted to you all.

  Our sincerest thanks to everyone!!

APCE Conference

The Association of Presbyterian Church Educators is the professional organization that focuses on educational ministry within the Presbyterian Church (USA). It is holding its annual national conference February 2 through 5 at the Dallas-Fort Worth Hyatt Regency Hotel in Texas. The Congregational Ministries Division of the PCUSA offers a registration fee scholarship and an APCE student membership for 1993-94 for Presbyterian students. Also available is the E. Valaria Murphy Scholarship for racial/ethnic students, which provides up to $400 toward travel and hotel expenses for the conference. If you are interested, applications are available in the Christian education office.

Job ($$) Opportunity — Site Trip Coordinator Needed

The field education office is seeking a person to coordinate four site trips (February 27, March 30, April 6, and April 13) for GM100 students. Preliminary planning would begin now and would require three to five hours work per week. One week prior to each trip, an average of ten hours work would be necessary. The applicant should have prior organizational experience, live nearby, and be easily accessible at home by phone. For further information and clarification, please—

Campus Security Update

- The Seminary is required to make quarterly reports regarding campus security. During the months of July, August, and September, one attempted auto theft and two instances of commercial sales soliciting at CRW were reported.

  Something to think about: the Seminary experienced thefts of coats and jackets from both the campus center and the library during the winter. It should be noted that at least five cars were stolen from the Canal Pointe development. To protect your vehicle from theft, it is strongly urged that you invest in some form of anti-theft device such as "The Club."

APCE Conference

The Association of Presbyterian Church Educators is the professional organization that focuses on educational ministry within the Presbyterian Church (USA). It is holding its annual national conference February 2 through 5 at the Dallas-Fort Worth Hyatt Regency Hotel in Texas. The Congregational Ministries Division of the PCUSA offers a registration fee scholarship and an APCE student membership for 1993-94 for Presbyterian students. Also available is the E. Valaria Murphy Scholarship for racial/ethnic students, which provides up to $400 toward travel and hotel expenses for the conference. If you are interested, applications are available in the Christian education office.

Costa Rica Seminar on Peace

A group of twenty-five, mostly Presbyterian seminarians along with members of their congregations, will meet with twenty-five Costa Ricans in a "listening seminar" June 13-20, 1994, in Costa Rica. The focus of this seminar will be understanding systems of thinking and world views that lead to and support peace. Each supporting congregation (at this point) will pay the cost of their member(s) and seminarian. For further information, please—

Campus Security Update

- The Seminary is required to make quarterly reports regarding campus security. During the months of July, August, and September, one attempted auto theft and two instances of commercial sales soliciting at CRW were reported.

  Something to think about: the Seminary experienced thefts of coats and jackets from both the campus center and the library last winter. It should be noted that at least five cars were stolen from the Canal Pointe development behind the Market Fair shopping mall. To protect your vehicle from theft, it is strongly urged that you invest in some form of anti-theft device such as "The Club."

From the Reigner Reading Room

- Resources are now on display for advent, Christmas, epiphany, and Kwanzaa. Come and get ideas for worship, activities, crafts, studies, videos, etc. Most of these resources may be checked out for a two-week period.

A Christmas Craft Workshop is planned for Saturday, December 4, from 9:00 a.m. to noon in the Reigner Reading Room. This event is for parents and their children (3 years and older), for youth, and for students. The cost of the event is $1 per person. Reservations should be made by calling the Reigner Reading Room (497-7916) by November 30. A variety of Christmas crafts will be made for the home or to be used as gifts. Refreshments and stories will also be a part of the morning.

If you would like to help with the workshop (teach a craft or help others make a craft), please speak with one of the RRR staff members (Tammy Abee, Brenda Harris, Debbie Hough, Glory Jothi, Sarita Ravinder, or Nancy Reinert). Help is needed, so if you have a yearning to work with glue, scissors, etc., please contact a staff member.

On November 17, the faculty approved the following statements:

- "It is a matter of considerable concern to the faculty of Princeton Theological Seminary that the director of the chapel and campus pastor, the Reverend Michael Livingston, has been misrepresented in the July-August 1993 issue of The Presbyterian Layman.

  Three points need to be corrected. First, the process by which chapel leadership is scheduled has been misrepresented. The procedure, which antedates the coming of Mr. Livingston, sets aside some days for the president and invited visitors, and then divides the remaining days between two groups (faculty and administrators, and students: M.Div. seniors, Th.M., and Ph.D.), on a "first responds, first scheduled" basis. Second, Mr. Kevin Porter was not a guest preacher but a student preacher, whose sermon on the reported occasion never mentioned the subject of homosexuality. Third, the statement attributed to Mr. Livingston on the occasion of Mr. Porter's sermon was never made. In light of these facts, the faculty believes it is appropriate to reaffirm its full confidence in Mr. Livingston's pastoral and administrative leadership.

  While recognizing the right of Christians sincerely to differ in matters of conviction, and the appropriateness of their expressing their views in public, we hold that our faith calls on Christians to be both truthful and respectful in speaking about and reporting on matters of honest disagreement."

- "That the faculty note with grave concern the totally unauthorized use of President Gillespie's name and quotation by him in fund-raising material sent out by the Presbyterian Lay Committee. The faculty expresses its sympathy to the President that he has been misrepresented in this way."

- "That the faculty would like to correct the factual errors reported by John M. Fife in his editorial printed in the July/August issue of the journal, Church and Society. Specifically, the "entire biblical faculty" of the Seminary did not sign any document produced by persons at the Seminary, nor does the "entire biblical faculty...dissent from the definitive guidance of tradition" as stated by Mr. Fife."
